PROFESSIONAL/ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

2011-2017 President and Founding Board Member, Vancouver Society for the Promotion of the Liberal Arts
-Lead this non-profit society in offering free seminars to the general public on foundational books. First seminar on Plato's Republic held from September to December 2014. Sponsors are the Vancouver Public Library, Vancouver Public Library Foundation, and Simon Fraser University.

- 2008-2009 Acting Director, University of British Columbia, Faculty of Arts, Instructional Support and Information Technology unit.
 - Oversee staff of eighteen specialists in technology-enhanced learning, network systems administration, classroom support services, and computer laboratory learning. Specific duties include overseeing 1.3 million CAD budget, long-range planning for network infrastructure at faculty and university levels, strategizing with academic departments for technological support to teaching and research, and personnel management.
- 2007-present Founding Member, Network of Concerned Anthropologists.
 - Plan strategies for raising awareness about the appropriation of ethnographic knowledge for military purposes as this trend can jeopardize the necessary trust and openness between anthropologists and the people around the world with whom they work.
- 2004-2008 Founder and Convener, Inter-Faculty Initiative on Migration Studies (IFIMS), University of British Columbia.
 - Chair the steering committee aiming to expand migration studies at UBC.
- 2004-2008 Co-founder and Co-convener (with Janine Wedel), Interest Group for the Anthropology of Public Policy (American Anthropological Association).
 - Co-lead an interest group that supports the development of a comprehensive research agenda on public policy as a tool of social regulation in mass society.
- 2003-2005 Program Coordinator, MA Program in Migration Studies, global university consortium with Georgetown University and University of Amsterdam.
 - Spearheaded the design of a web-based MA program offered by a consortium of universities located in Asia/Australia, North American, and Europe; outline academic, administrative, and financial plans; coordinate with an advisory group at UBC; and establish an inter-university managing committee to ensure the program's long-term viability.
- 2001 Independent Consultant, United Nations Development Programme mission, Tallinn, Estonia.
 - Led an evaluation of a three-year multi-lateral project valued at 1.35 million USD, funded by the governments of Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, and the United Kingdom. The project supports language training, educational reform, and cultural activities for ethnic minorities in Estonia.
- 1999-2001 Communications Officer, Non-Estonians Integration Foundation, Tallinn, Estonia.
 - Wrote grant proposals and memoranda to foreign embassies and international organizations that support ethnic integration activities in Estonia.
- 2000 Independent Consultant, United Nations Development Programme mission, Tallinn, Estonia, April-May 2000
 - Conducted an evaluation of two integration projects involving budget analysis, project analysis, and interviews with government officials, diplomats, and NGO leaders. The first project supported Estonian language training to non-Estonians (funded by the European Union Phare Programme at 1.35 million USD). The second project supported language training, educational reform, and cultural activities (funded by the embassies of Norway, Sweden, Denmark, and Finland at 1.35 million USD)

1993-1996 Private Investigator, Infomax, Tyson's Corner, Virginia.
- Street surveillance, delivered subpoenas, and wrote case reports.
